about us

We are passionate about our food and where it comes from. "From the ground up" is how we describe our food. From our own free range eggs, our own fresh pasta, through to our kitchen garden, we know where it comes from. If we can't grow it ourselves, we seek the best possible alternative from local producers.

Fresh pasta is our specialty! All of our pastas are made in house, our sauces are made the traditional Italian way, just the way Giuliana (Ermanno's mum) does it. And most importantly, all our food is made with love, the most important ingredient of all!!! Enjoy :)
