Cranzgots History

A long-standing Avalon institution, Cranzgots Pizza Cafe, was established in Plettenberg Bay, South Africa by the Golombick family, who brought it to Avalon in 1999. It has had many owners since then, keep up, pass on and add to the tradition and atmosphere over the years, as well as imprint their own identity, creations and quirkiness into the mix.

From Philip Golombick's original sign that sits above the "Big Out" table, to Louis Wayling's artwork throughout, and more recently, Jonathan Wood's church pew inside the restaurant, to elaborate pizza creations all the way - you'll experience a touch of Plett and a touch of Avalon throughout the years with the same vibes of great food, live music and good times.
